EDUCATION IS THE BEST SAFEGUARD
OF LIBERTY

Published by the Class of 1959
Greenville High School
Greenville, Ohio
Volume 49

Foreword

After long hours of magazine selling by all the seniors and designing and editing by the members of the Annual Staff, the Class of 1959 presents its yearbook, The Chief.

The theme developed when it was decided that the only way to capture the real story of the school would be to snap pictures without the students knowing about them. In this way the pictures would seem very natural and unposed.

Did you get "taken" by the hidden camera? The only way to find out is to look through this book and see. But as they say on television, "No one escapes the eye of the CANDID CAMERA."

Industrial Arts Building

In this relatively new building on the campus, which was completed in 1954, are such classes as industrial arts, which includes mechanical drawing, woodworking, metal working, and agriculture classes.

High School Building

This year Greenville High School has the largest enrollment ever in the history of the school. Every morning 770 students enter the portals of G.H.S. in search of a better education. Of these 231 are freshmen; 217, sophomores; 186 juniors; and 136 seniors.

"I forgot my books again," says Karen Thomas as she rings the bell for the janitors.

Memorial Hall

Since 1911 the St. Clair Memorial Hall has served the students of Greenville High School and the people of Greenville in many ways. Again this year sounds of music, speeches, applause, laughter, and even cheers echoed through the auditorium from the community concerts, musicals, plays, and assemblies which will never be forgotten.

Carnegie Library

Carnegie Library dates back to 1903 when Andrew Carnegie, Henry St. Clair, and the citizens of Greenville gave enough money to build a public library for Greenville. The Library now has about 53,900 books, of which there is an average distribution of about 300 a day. The registered borrowers, including many high school students, number about 9,254.

Stadium

A rather distant part of Greenville High School is the stadium. It was built in 1935 by the Public Works Administration, which was an agency of the government to provide jobs for those who had lost them during the depression. This picture shows what the stadium looks like before the throngs of enthusiastic spectators literally pack the stands during football season in the fall.

Administration and Faculty

During a school year a student spends just about as much time with his teachers and school administrators as with his parents. Next to the home the school contributes more to the maturing of youth than any other institution.

It is therefore imperative that the teachers and administrators be a group of individuals with superior education, unquestionable morals, emotional stability, and a definite yearning to be dedicated to youth.

Greenville is extremely fortunate in having men and women in the teaching profession with these qualities. We express our thanks for their dedication, and may we through our lives remember them and their efforts.

Board of Education

Elected by the voters of Greenville public school district, the Board of Education has the responsibility of supervising the care and maintenance of the public schools of Greenville.

The five board members, who meet at least once a month throughout the year, have the duties of selecting well qualified superintendents, principals, and teachers. They approve recommendations concerning the selection of textbooks; they set up the courses of study for the entire school system, and supervise the care of the city's public schools.

The Board of Education puts before the voters all school operating levies and bond issues after they have spent time thoroughly studying the existing situations and needed improvements.

President of Board
Dr. R. O. Wilson

Dr. F. H. Cox
Mr. Harold Snider

Mr. G. J. Shrader
Mr. Richard Hole

Robert Kolp, as Clerk of the Greenville Board of Education keeps minutes of Board meetings and handles all communication of the Board. He also keeps accounts of all district school funds, signs checks, and handles pay vouchers, and gives monthly statements to the Board concerning receipts and expenditures. Mrs. Brown, who serves as his secretary, assists him in these duties.

Superintendent of Schools

Mr. Hensel

A native of Preble County, Beryl Hensel has been in school work for 17 years. The last 12 years have been spent in the field of school administration. Prior to coming to Greenville he served six years as Superintendent of the Versailles schools.

Mr. Hensel holds Bachelor of Science and Master of Arts degrees from Ohio State University, and in addition has pursued graduate work at Miami University in the area of school administration. He is quite active in the five professional organizations to which he belongs, and is also active in community affairs. Reading and golf are his hobbies.

Mr. Hensel has a reputation for being democratic, and he believes that administration is a service activity through which the objectives of the educational process may be more fully and efficiently realized.

He is quite happy to be in Greenville. It has always impressed him with its fine schools and community attitudes which make it a desirable place in which to live and rear a family. He is impressed with the high morale of the student body and teachers. His objective is to make the Greenville Public Schools the best in every way so that students, teachers, and community can continue to be justly proud of their schools.

Assistant Superintendent of Schools

Mr. Maxwell

William Maxwell, who has been associated with the Greenville Public Schools for the last 17 years as principal of the East Elementary School, became Assistant Superintendent of Schools at the beginning of the second semester.

Prior to his coming to Greenville, Mr. Maxwell was a teacher and principal for five years, which makes a total of 22 years in the teaching profession.

The duties of the new assistant superintendent will include supervising the non-certified personnel, building maintenance, transportation, cafeterias, etc.

He holds a Bachelor of Science degree from Ohio State University, and a Master of Arts degree from Miami University. His favorite pastimes are golf and traveling.

High School Principal

Mr. Kemper

Garland W. Kemper has been principal of Greenville High School since 1954. He graduated from Western Kentucky State College in 1936, with a Bachelor of Arts degree in economics, history, and instrumental music. A Master of Arts degree in education was received from the University of Kentucky in 1946. Mr. Kemper has been engaged in the teaching profession as a teacher, band director, and principal in both elementary schools and high schools for twenty-four years. He has served as a full time high school principal for the past twelve years. Previous to his position in Greenville, he was the first principal of the new consolidated Harrison County High School, Cynthiana, Kentucky, 1950-54.

Mr. Kemper has many hobbies, some of which are hunting, fishing, picnicking, cooking charcoaled steaks, traveling, and reading.

Since coming to Greenville he has seen an entire student body come and go. The most significant change he has observed is a remarkable improvement in the general attitude of the student body toward the importance of education and toward the development of better study habits and skills.

Some of his duties include administrative and supervisory functions relating to students, teachers, and non-teaching personnel.

Mr. Hensel's Secretaries

Mrs. Elberta Eisenhower and Miss Cassel are filling the jobs of secretaries to the Superintendent of Schools for their second and thirty-fifth years, respectively. Their duties include: filing, answering the phone, typing letters from dictation, issuing purchase orders for educational supplies, issuing work permits, preparing and mailing tuition bills, cutting stencils, and other secretarial duties. As outside interests Mrs. Eisenhower likes to play cards and watch TV. Miss Cassel gives music lessons and enjoys bridge.

Mr. Kemper's Secretaries

Mr. Kemper's secretaries in the office this year are Mrs. Jean Howell and Mrs. Jean Baird.

Mrs. Howell, who has been employed at Greenville High School for two years, is kept very busy with permanent records, correspondence, and general office duties. In her more leisure hours music, knitting, reading, and bowling occupy her time.

A newcomer this year, Mrs. Baird has taken over the duties of controlling the G.H.S. Activities Fund, taking numerous inventories, and helping in general filing and office procedures. Reading, bridge, sports, and TV are Mrs. Baird's outside interests.

Dean of Boys

James Holzapfel, as Dean of Boys, takes care of the boys' daily attendance records. In addition he helps with schedule changes, conducts freshman orientation classes, serves as an advisor for Student Council, and is on the Principal's Advisory Council.

Mr. Holzapfel was graduated from Miami University with a degree of Bachelor of Science in Education.

Attention all classes!

Freshman orientation class enjoys a panel discussion on occupations.

Dean of Girls

Mr. Holzapfel looks busy!

Dean of Girls, Kathryn Griner, has many duties in this capacity. Besides keeping the girls' daily attendance records, Mrs. Griner teaches freshman orientation classes, helps with schedule changes, assists the seniors in choosing colleges or vocations, serves as an advisor for Student Council, and is on the Principal's Advisory Council.

Mrs. Griner was graduated from Bowling Green State University with a Bachelor of Science in Education degree with majors in English, history, and foreign languages. She also received a Master of Arts degree in French from the University of Michigan and a Guidance Counselor's Certificate from Miami University.

Mrs. Griner helps David Shumacher decide on a college.

Classes

"Senior rah!" and "Junior rah!" are some of the yells resounding in Greenville High from time to time. Of course, following them immediately are the wild cries, "Yeah '61!" and "Yeah '62!" Yes, there are definitely classes in dear old G.H.S.

Each class sponsors its own activities which are usually the biggest events in the year to the members of that class. Whether it is parties, dances, proms, or even Sneak Days, there is always a lot of work to be done in putting them on; but the end results are well worth the work.

Even though each person possesses a loyalty toward his own class, he holds an even bigger loyalty to his school. "Yeah, Greenville!"

Classes

The Freshmen

The frightened Freshmen arrived eager and hopeful that fateful day last September. At first they wandered to and fro trying to find the right classroom. Within a few days everyone knew what he was doing and where he was going. Out of the class of 210, Larry Myers was elected president; Joyce Holthouse, vice-president; Buddy Ogle, secretary; Ron Aten, treasurer; Collette Spidel, reporter. Homer Huston served as head class sponsor. They began the year with a picnic, which almost all attended. This was to serve as an ice-breaker. After roasting many weiners together, all had found many new friends. By October most of the Freshman girls asked boys to go with them to the annual G.A.A. dance. Then they all anxiously awaited the night of their first formal dance which was only two months away. Near the end of the year a stamp drive was held, and all Freshmen scampered about the town searching for stamps. Unfortunately, there was no freshman party because the money obtained from the stamps wasn't sent in time. Now they have completed their first year and are looking forward to their second year, a little wiser, a little more eager.

The Sophomores

This year's Sophomore Class, composed of 230 students, returned last September a little wiser with one year of high school tucked under their belts. Because of the difficulty of most Sophomore subjects, the class didn't participate in too many extracurricular activities. But under the direction of the class officers Bob Nelson, president; Nils Eikenberry, vice-president; Tim Nealeigh, treasurer; Kathy Teaford, secretary; Jean Shultz, and the class sponsor with Mr. Coney Cornett as head sponsor the class's enthusiasm was centered upon their informal dance, "Some Enchanted Evening." After many hours of planning and committee meetings, the dance finally began to take form. And not a minute too soon, for the big night had arrived. Everyone had a delightful time in the highly-decorated gymnasium dancing to the music of Bobby Wertz's band. Now they are looking forward to the beginning of next year when they will be upperclassmen.

The Juniors

At last we are upper-classmen! The Juniors now have some authority around this school. The girls managed to ask the boys to the annual G.A.A. dance around the first of November, quite a change from their Freshman year. They elected Doug Shellhass for their president; Bonnie Zechar, vice-president; Sue Straker, secretary; Gail Grimes, treasurer; Barbara Browne, reporter. In February they presented their first play under the direction of Fred McKee. It was entitled, "Father's Been to Mars" which was an interplanetary success. In May they chose a Hawaiian theme for the prom, honoring our fiftieth state. The annual Junior-Senior Prom is given for the Seniors by the Juniors each year. The decorations were very unusual and original. The waving palm trees, the beautiful murals, and the grass hut which served as the refreshment stand all added to the Hawaiian atmosphere. Everyone had a delightful evening dancing to the enchanting music of Bobby Wertz. As twelve o'clock sounded all left to go to all-night parties and the traditional prom night.

"Your Graduation Means Good-bye"

The Seniors

The Class of 1959 has at last completed their four years of high school.

During the year they enjoyed being the "older kids" around the school.

As the year passed, the Seniors became more and more independent until the teachers could hardly put up with their pranks and nonsense. But even though they were carefree about many things, they had their moments of seriousness. As each event of the year occurred they suddenly felt the sadness of knowing that they were participating in these things for the last time. In the fall was the big formal G.A.A. Dance, then the Winter Musical, the Spring Musical, the T.C.C. Dance, and the various installations of the officers for next year. Oh, yes, there was Sneak Day when all the Seniors "snuck" away from school and spent the day in the park fishing themselves out of the lagoons and playing all sorts of games. What a panic! A few weeks later saw them all enjoying their last high school prom. How wonderful it was dancing in the arms of their favorite guys or gals! The next week they presented the Sob Assembly of 1959. The humor of those Seniors! But they have their serious moments; and as they saw each other in their caps and gowns, the tears of happiness and sadness began to slowly fall for they knew that they were leaving this small world to enter the large competitive world as college students, as business men and women, and as homemakers. Yes, the Class of 1959 officially left Greenville High School June 2, when they received their diplomas at Commencement, but the four happy years spent there will live on in their hearts forever.

Ushers

At the end of the first semester of the junior year all the grades are averaged, and the top thirteen girls in the class receive the honor of being an usher. They usher from the senior class play until the next year at the senior class play. The two girls who rank next scholastically serve as substitute ushers. The ushers serve at all programs sponsored by the school and community held at the St. Clair Memorial Hall.

Senior Scholarship Team

One hundred twenty-six Darke County students took the Senior State Scholarship Test given in January. Greenville High School had ten Seniors who placed in the top twenty in the county and four who received honorable mention in the state.

Placers

Layne Peiffer and Kent Teaford rated top scores on the Senior Scholarship Tests. Layne led with a top score of 241 while Kent was second with 221 out of 300. Betty Albrecht placed fourth in the county with 214. Seven other seniors placed in the top twenty and received honorable mention in the county. They are Mike Karn, 188; Elaine Klinger, 185; Dennis Blanchard, 180; David Schumacher, 175; Ted Mong, 173; David Spidel and Joe Suter, 172.

Commencement

Commencement—the end? No, the beginning of our own lives—our very own. Until this time our lives have been chiefly directed by adults around us. Now we will have to make our own decisions.

This important ceremony began as the Seniors proudly marched along the football field lined with the Juniors forming a Guard of Honor; two Junior boys served as flag bearers; and the high school band furnished the music. The Reverend Phillip Lauver of the Brethren Church gave the Invocation and the Benediction. The speaker for the evening was Dr. Earl C. Metz, head of the Department of Education at Capital University, who was introduced by Superintendent Beryl Hensel. Principal Garland G. Kemper presented each Senior to Dr. Robert Wilson, president of the Board of Education, who gave each Senior his diploma. After Commencement, the Seniors filed out as the Juniors again formed the Guard of Honor.

Kent Teaford—Valedictorian receives diploma.

Baccalaureate

On the evening of May 31, 1959, the Baccalaureate services for the Class of 1959 were held in the St. Clair Memorial Hall with The Reverend Harold Huffman of the First Presbyterian Church delivering the class sermon, "Where Will You Lead." The Seniors were dressed in the traditional caps and gowns of school colors—boys in green and girls in white—as they solemnly listened to the sermon. The Junior members of A Cappella sang the Baccalaureate anthem, Lo, A Voice To Heaven Sounding. The Reverend Frank Thomas, pastor of the First Congregational Christian Church, read the Holy Scriptures; and The Reverend Samuel Hoeflick of the St. Paul's Lutheran Church gave the Invocation and Benediction. Miss Otilla McGreevey played the Processional and Recessional as the Seniors walked to and from the auditorium.

Organizations

Besides classroom work a school has other ways of teaching. Such things as music appreciation, interest in the out-of-doors and sports, techniques of newspaper writing, or even methods of reclining as the Romans did are best learned through the work of the school clubs and organizations.

These organizations are designed to unite students who have interests along the same lines into working groups. There are more than 20 of these groups, both large and small, in G.H.S. that have many activities and projects making them definitely worthwhile.

Because of organizations Greenville High School is an extremely busy place, but without them school just wouldn't be the same.

Members of the Annual Staff are nominated by the faculty and elected by the Senior class. The staff members then elect a junior representative who gains experience by working with the staff throughout the year.

To finance the annual the staff sponsors a magazine drive, but the major task of this group is writing and editing the school yearbook, the Chief. Mrs. Kathryn Griner serves as advisor for the Annual Staff.

To Mrs. Griner,

We, the members of the Annual Staff and the rest of the senior class, would like to thank you sincerely for all the help you have given us on the 1959 Chief. We will never forget the way you gave so willingly of your time every Tuesday night to be the Annual Staff advisor.

Each class elects two boys and two girls to serve on the Student Council. They strive throughout the year to promote better understanding between the students and the school administration.

As in the past, the sixteen member council sponsored the Christmas Seal drive, the Polio drive, honor study halls, the hall monitor system, and concessions at several basketball games. In addition to these traditional duties, the council revised the Greenville High School handbook, acted as school guides on B.I.E. Day and Parents' Visitation Days, and also journeyed to Troy, Ohio, to attend the Miami Valley Student Council Workshop.

National Honor Society

The place: Memorial Hall auditorium.
The time: 9:30 a.m. on March 4, 1959.
The event: Twenty-Sixth annual tap chapel for National Honor Society.

At this moment, Howard Allman, accompanied by the organ playing "Green and White," came slowly down the aisle and tapped Betty Albrecht on the shoulder to start National Honor Society initiation.

After Betty, each new member in his turn was likewise tapped, escorted across the stage by one of the senior society members elected last year (Carol Maxwell, Sharon Mohler, Joe Suter, Mark Wagner, Layne Peiffer, Susie Goubeaux, Kent Teaford, and Judy Brown) and presented their stole and pin by Superintendent Hensel and Principal Kemper, respectively. The speaker was Reverend Calvin Rodeheffer, pastor of the Greenville Methodist Church.

Students are elected into National Honor Society by the faculty on the basis of outstanding scholarship, leadership, character and service.

This year the following thirteen seniors were chosen: Esther Paulus, Mara Jekabsons, Sandra Shepherd, Elaine Klinger, Sandra Raudabaugh, Roger Nealeigh, Debbie Zeller, Betty Albrecht, Dan Miley, Martha Brumbaugh, Mike Karn, Jill Steinle, Joan Buchy.

One of the most active and most important clubs in Greenville High School is the Reporters' Club. The job of this club is to inform the public as to what is going on in the high school. Besides spending a great deal of time publishing the G.H.S. ADVOCATE, the Reporters' Club also puts out a magazine six times a year, strictly for entertainment, called the "Mirror."

Mothers enjoy “Hello Party”

Teens' Christian Club is an organization which invites all high school girls to join in Christian fellowship.

At the beginning of the year the girls and their mothers attended a get-acquainted party called a "Hello Party." The club also put on a religious assembly at Thanksgiving that was designed to make the whole student body realize just what there is to be thankful for in these United States. "Glacca Morra" was the name of the T.C.C. spring semiformal dance. Ending the year off with a salute to the seniors of the club, the T.C.C. mothers gave their daughters a tea.

Girls' Athletic Association, whose purpose is to develop an interest for girls in sports and recreation, is open to all the girls of Greenville High School. Points are earned by participating in various athletic activities, and at the annual G.A.A. banquet members with excessive points receive awards.

Besides sponsoring the Homecoming ceremonies, the G.A.A. cabinet members are responsible for operating the football concession. They also sponsor the annual G.A.A. formal dance, an assembly, and a roller skating party.

To promote interest in sports, the club sponsors a volleyball team, a bowling team, a basketball team, and a track team for girls.

The Future Teachers of America is a club organized to interest students in the teaching profession. This year their activities included having a Christmas party, helping the high school teachers in their duties both in and out of the classroom, and assisting as guides on Parents' Visitation Night. Senior members of the club also visited the city elementary schools and observed the teachers. Several members journeyed to Wittenberg College at Springfield to attend the Future Teachers' Clinic sponsored by the Kiwanis Clubs of this area.

Art Club, whose main purpose is to promote interest in art, is open to any student taking art. It is one of the newest and most active clubs in the high school.

To make money for their club treasury this year, Art Club made handmade Christmas cards. They also helped the other clubs and classes by spending time on decorations for various social functions. Other activities included a trip to the Dayton Art Institute, a Christmas party, and a field trip to Bear's Mill to paint. Instead of a spring banquet, they had a picture party in which members masqueraded to portray famous pictures.

Hall Monitors

Sponsored by the Student Council, this group is chosen from study halls and assigned to certain first floor posts throughout the day. The Hall Monitors' duties are to keep students without passes from roaming through the halls while classes are in session, show visitors to the office, pass out attendance sheets, and run errands for the office personnel.

Future Homemakers of America is a club which strives to promote a growing appreciation and satisfaction in homemaking. This organization is made up of girls taking home economics.

Beginning the year with a membership drive, their activities included a World Peace Assembly, the sending of delegates to F.H.A. State Convention, Daddy Date Night, Cabinet May breakfast, the conferring of Chapter Homemaker Degrees and the operation of the concession stand for some of the basketball games. The banquet in May climaxed the year's activities.

Future Farmers of America is a club whose purpose is to promote interest and knowledge in the field of agriculture. This organization, open to any boy in the high school, is highly active in school life. This year the F.F.A. sponsored a Parliamentary Procedure Contest, livestock judging contests, a Highway Safety Contest, and a fund-raising Christmas card drive in order to earn money to send Christmas baskets to needy people. The boys combined with the Future Homemakers of America in sponsoring a Parents' Night, an assembly and two skating parties.

The F.F.A. basketball team ended their season with a fine record of six wins and two losses, the best record in recent years. They also started a new tradition by electing the first chapter F.F.A. Sweetheart, Marilyn Meyer. Marilyn was awarded a white F.F.A. jacket in their March assembly.

Following the school year, a picnic was held at LeSourds-ville as a climax to the year's program.

Hi-Y is an organization open to any sophomore, junior, or senior boy for the purpose of maintaining the Christian way of living.

During the year the boys operated a coat-check at the basketball games, sponsored a candidate for polio queen, and collected food for needy families during the Christmas season. The boys were guided in their activities by a new sponsor this year, John Gilbert.

Sports

School sports are always a lot of fun to both the players and the spectators. But a good sports program offers much more than fun.

By participating in sports a player learns to take orders and carry them out to the best of his ability, to think quickly and act decisively, to know the meaning of discipline, to work with others as a team, to smile when things go against his team, to respect and demand respect of his fellow teammates, and to make real and lasting friendships with squad members.

The spirit behind the teams is the student body. Without their interest and support, sports wouldn't be very enjoyable to the players. Imagine an exciting basketball game without loud cheers and screams of enthusiasm from the cheering sections. Yes, high school sports are geared so that both the players and the spectators enjoy themselves immensely and take a greater pride in their school.

On the night before the homecoming game the student body held a bonfire pep rally behind the stadium and a dummy Piqua player was burned in effigy.

The Varsity "G" Association is an honorary club for all boys who have earned one or more letters in a varsity sport. The boys had many projects this year. The football "G" members had a Varsity Day when they were salesmen at Sellman's Hardware Store and washed cars at Vietor-Huston's supermarket parking lot. The whole association had an annual "G" Banquet for all members, fathers and alumni. Again this year they sponsored a candidate for the Polio Queen contest. The '59 candidate was Sue Straker, junior. A scrap drive and tax stamp drive were some of the other activities of the "G" Association. The profits from these projects were used to buy new football and basketball equipment. FIRST ROW: Richard Marshall, John Suba, Lloyd Fasick. SECOND ROW: Howard Allman, Anthony Ware, Anthony DiRocco.

Howard Allman is one of three coaches who were new to G.H.S. this past season. A native of West Virginia, he assumed duties as assistant football coach and was also a junior high basketball coach. Mr. Allman and his wife have two children, aged two and three.

Tony Ware took over the job of head football coach in the fall of 1958. Coach Ware has been in the business for nine years, since his graduation from West Virginia University in 1950. The father of three children, Mr. Ware also coaches junior high basketball.

Tony DiRocco, a native of Pennsylvania and a graduate of Wittenberg College, has served seven years on the Greenville coaching staff. Coach DiRocco serves as assistant football coach and is in charge of the golf team, which has won two consecutive M.V.L. championships.

Richard Marshall completed his second year at G.H.S. as head basketball coach and junior high track and football coach. A graduate of Wilmington College, Mr. Marshall has been coaching for twelve years. In that time, his teams have won a total of seventeen trophies, including the last two Piqua Holiday Tournaments.

John Suba, in his first season at Greenville, fulfilled duties as assistant football coach and as freshman basketball coach. Coach Suba is a native of Pennsylvania and attended college at Davis-Elkins and West Virginia University. Mr. Suba and his wife have three children.

Lloyd Fasick has been on the G.H.S. coaching staff for five years. Coach Fasick graduated from high school in Darke County and attended Manchester College in Indiana. He serves as baseball and reserve basketball coach.

Athletic Director

A vital part of the Greenville High School athletic setup is the office of athletic director, held by James Holzapfel. One of Mr. Holzapfel's most important jobs is setting up the football and basketball schedules. In addition, he must secure the stadium and gym needs for the games, and hire the officials for home games. Other duties include keeping financial records for all sports and acting as secretary at meetings of the Athletic Board of Control. Mr. Holzapfel also serves as track and cross country coach.

New 3-D "G"

The symbol of highest achievement in athletic competition at G.H.S. is the "G." To earn such an award, a boy must fulfill certain requirements in a varsity sport. Letters are given in cross country, football, basketball, track, baseball, golf, and tennis. This year a modern three-dimensional style was introduced.

Cross Country

And—here they come!

Dick Martin
Cross Country Manager

The boys out for cross country cover quite a bit of country during each meet. At practice and home games they run over a two mile course laid out over the City Park. As far as scoring goes for the meets, each team's first five boys to finish the course count for the final team score. The individual first-place winner receives two points, etc. Low score wins.

Greenville placed fourth in the Lowell Thomas meet at Franklin-Monroe and tied for fourth in the M.V.L. meet this year.

The Brains and the Brawn

Tony Ware
Head Football Coach

In his first year as head football coach at Greenville High, Coach Ware and his team compiled the best won-lost record G.H.S. has seen in the last three years. The Wave got off to a fast start, winning two non-league games. As a result of the victory over Celina, the Little Brown Jug was returned to the school trophy case. In Miami Valley League competition, Greenville finished higher than in the two previous seasons. Two assistant coaches, Howard Allman and John Suba, were also new to G.H.S. this year and contributed a great deal to the success of the team.

For the second straight year since his arrival at G.H.S., Coach Richard Marshall guided his charges to a winning season. The final record was nine won and seven lost.

During the Christmas vacation the Wave successfully defended its title at the holiday tournament in Piqua. The team brought home the trophy by defeating Tipp City in the first game and downing Piqua in overtime in the finals.

In the Miami Valley League race, Greenville's four and three record was good enough for undisputed possession of third place. Dave Spidel was named to the all-M.V.L. first team, and Ross Gruber received honorable mention.

At Practice

Managers

Basketball team managers for the 1958-59 season were Tom Cool and Dick Martin for the Reserve and Varsity teams, respectively.

These two boys were in charge of getting clean uniforms, taking care of the basketballs and other equipment, being ready any time with the first aid kit, and numerous odd jobs.

“Now throw it to Clark!” said the Chief.

Gutter Ball Gals

Wednesday night teams

Girls' bowling teams meet every Wednesday and Thursday after school. The girls belong to the American Junior Bowling Congress; therefore, the rates are much cheaper. Each team of five girls has a name such as "4 Strikes and a Spare." The winning team at the end of the bowling season receives trophies and play the winning team at Arcanum for a final match.

Look at that form! But, oh! It was a gutter ball.

This year's G.H.S. golfers outshone all other school teams, past and present. In regular season play, the linksmen swept eleven straight dual matches. In the process, they outscored their opponents $148\frac{1}{2}$ to $31\frac{1}{2}$. They also copped the M.V.L. title in the league tournament for the second consecutive year. Next came the district meet, and the Wave finished second to qualify for the state tournament in Columbus. There they competed against the best high school golf teams in the state, and proved themselves superior to all but one, to finish in the runner-up spot. The five top men on the team were as follows: Skip Wille, Kent Teaford, and Bud Sink, seniors; and Stuart Hughes and John Timmons, juniors. All five saw extensive action, with no set first four being used by Coach DiRocco. Hughes was medalist in the M.V.L. meet, and Wille led the team in the state tournament.

Student Life

The Chief and his "candid camera" probably had the most fun taking pictures for the new Student Life section which is devoted to informal shots taken around the school and at school activities.

Since an annual is a memory book, it should capture the students as they really are. This section shows the informal side of the students of Greenville High through candid shots taken in classes, in the halls, at assemblies, at games, and at special events like dances and Homecoming.

To find out the answers to such questions as, "Is Ross Gruber really a giant?" or "Who was selected to be Annual King and Queen?" you had better hurry and look through the section on Student Life.

Homecoming

One of the highlights of the Homecoming game—Greenville vs. Piqua—October 17, was the crowning of the 1958-59 Greenville High School Homecoming Queen. The queen was selected by the students. About a week prior to the homecoming game each student was given a ballot containing a list of all the senior girls and was instructed to vote for just one girl. The seven girls receiving the most votes were elected candidates for queen. The girl with the most votes was the queen.

On October 9, the names of the candidates were announced, but the identity of the queen was not made known until the halftime of the Homecoming football game.

Garry Moore—the judge

Garry Moore, the famous television master of ceremonies, was the celebrity chosen to be the first person to select an Annual King and Queen in this new feature of the Greenville High School Chief.

Judging strictly from the pictures sent to him of all the members of the senior class, Mr. Moore chose Marilyn Meyer as Queen and Ken Baker as King.

To reign on their court he selected Joy Lindamood, Becky Vietor, Lucille Beutler, Jill Steinle, Debbie Zeller, Ray Spurlock, Tom Riegel, Mark Wagner, Kent Teaford, and Pete Johnson as the seniors who were "next best" as far as looks in their pictures go.

Queen Marilyn

Queen Marilyn Meyer came to Greenville High from West Alexandria at the beginning of her junior year. Before coming to G.H.S., Queen Marilyn was quite active as a cheerleader and was also elected to the Homecoming Court, as the sophomore representative. Since becoming a part of G.H.S. Marilyn has been a member of the marching band and concert band and served as typist for the Annual Staff. Marilyn also received the honor of being elected the Sweetheart of the Greenville chapter of Future Farmers of America.

King Ken

King Ken Baker was a student at Greenville High all four years. He was a member of the football, basketball, and baseball teams his freshman year and was also a football player his sophomore year. Ken has helped out with the plays, musicals, and assemblies all four years by being a member of the stage crew.

Yippee! It's Done!

Yes, the '59 Chief is finally completed! It was a great amount of work, but we think it was worth it and hope that you do too.

Of course, we never would have completed the first page if it weren't for the help and constant urging of Mrs. Griner. Miss Day also aided us a great deal with our magazine drive in the fall. Another person whom we couldn't have gotten along without was Dan Miley, the guy who took all of our crazy "Candid Camera" shots without one single gripe. Working right along with Dan was the Osborne Photographic Studios, who did an excellent job with the photographic work. Need we say that this book wouldn't have been possible without the Taylor Publishing Company. They have given us help all through the year and have tried, right along with us, to make this the best Chief ever. To these special people, as well as to the administration and faculty of Greenville High School, the 1959 Annual Staff says a warm "Thank you."

Yes, the Chief is finished and we're finished too. Yippee!
